

For Barbara Steinberg Watercolor Classes:

Barbara Steinberg - 1-808-879-0025 - barbara@barbarasteinberg.com

Here is a list of art supply to bring to class:

1. Plastic Watercolors Palette (not too small)
2. Aquarelle Synthetic Watercolor Brushes:
Round sizes 1,3,6,8,10 (or numbers similar like 2,4,6,8 ); you can buy a set.
Flat brush 3/4"
3. Watercolor Paper size 11 X 14"
Choices of watercolor paper depend on the cost you can afford. Beginner pad any brand - buy one pad if you are a beginner.

In addition, if you can afford it, buy one of these pads too:
Arches Watercolor Paper 140 pound in a pad (not a block style), or 300 pound Arches paper in a pad depending on cost you can afford.

4. Pad Drawing Paper for sketches and color testing
5. Pencil 2H pencil
6. Pencil Sharpener
7. Kneaded Rubber Eraser
8. Drawing Board with clips large enough to fit your paper on (optional but good idea)
9. Watercolor Brush Holder (optional)
10. Bring 1-2 plastic cups for water.
11. Bag to carry your supplies in
12. Portfolio to store your finished art and paper in (optional) - can be paper type as least expensive

PAINTS:

Grumbacher's Watercolors - three colors required:

or can buy these 3 colors at Upcountry Fine Arts

If needed, call Barbara at 879-0025 for help getting these paints.

Upcountry Fine Arts

The three Daniel Smith colors are available there.

Ben Franklin:

Sometimes they have Grumbacher's Academy colors and do not substitute for other colors; rather buy colors from Barbara in class, plus get the rest on the list which is available here.

Kihei Ace Hardware:

To buy brushes, paper and palette
